Dearest,

Today is St. Valentine's day and I hope you got the card that I sent you. But I guess like all the other cards I sent you or any body they got there late. But I guess I'll be with you on happy St. Valentine's day. The right thing to do. May the next one we have put you closer to me. Or me closer to you. which I think is better.

I see that I get my letters from you with the stamps on my side down. I hope I got the right meaning of that. I guess ~~because~~ here that is a insult to the King. And you can get in a lot of trouble like that.

We got a nice day again. Not as warm as it was yesterday but still nice. a little wind. So tomorrow it will be bad. As I got the day off. It's always bad when I get the day off.

It's good to get a day off when I go to town. Just to get away from this camp. I guess you are like that too. If you have any time off you try to get away from the hospital. as it feels good just I do that.

Yesterday I wrote you, it was last night and I was pretty tired so it may be a pretty bad letter. But I do remember one thing I would writing you about. And that was your dates.

I told you that if you ever wrote to me I would like you to tell the time at all times well that has not changed. I think I told you that one night on the back steps of the nursing home. That is one time I got you back early. But for most of the time I would get you back later late. And you would have to change fast. I really had a lot of good nights there.

But back to the letter & your dates. Now that I asked you about yours. I guess I better tell you about mine over here. as I guess you know you are the only one at home that writes so much & so very true - the very nice things you say. And you are the only one I like & have them write that. as I like you more than the others.

I have a couple dates the last week.
They have all been with the same girl. I like her better than any I met over here. She has a lot of good points which a lot of the ones over here do not have. I go with her because I think she is the best one. We take in a show or put the nights over here.

She has a nice mother & a date I put Christmas day at their house. I guess the main reason I go with her is because I can go to her house. You get tired of slous & pub other places & just like a nice easy chair & sit in. I was always one for home & when I get near me I feel more like I am at home. There are so few people over here that will let you get in to their home.
That you are lucky if you do. Well, I can take my tie off & sit down if they can stand the smell, and that makes it feel like home. I feel like that home is my second home. I can talk to the girl's mother like I would my mother. And I would always talk to brother about some thing. Why this one over here even knows all about you.

I hope you are not mad at me for telling you this but as I feel there is nothing in it. I see no reason why I should not tell you about it. If you want me to drop it with a if you would like now I will do that also. I want every thing between you & me on the level & start off with. This way I hope you better it each not. I care for you more than her. I want to come back & you & not her. I just think it is better to tell you about it now as I wait until I get home.
I know you would like to know sooner or later. I also think that it is better to stay to one girl. then get a bad name if you went with them all. I would like you to write your own opinion on it.

So Dordie's Man is going or has gone away. Well, it looks like every body has to leave some body then love. Does she see then in much?

Do you remember the time we went to the Rail Fence? That is the place at the end of Grand Ave. near the park. I think you wrote me that you were then the best part of this year. Well, they got police there then I make the kids get home in bed at 10:30. as I guess the parent of the kids were complain they were staying out so long. And now that all the older boys are gone. The younger ones think it is his place to take up where his brother brother left off. The girls follow the boys. We don't mix things when they get back.

I guess that is all to say this day for all sweethearts. And I guess I can call you mine.

I will be thinking of you & hoping you are doing the same.

With all my love
& many kisses
'Bye!
