Dearest Martha,

I guess I have been off the ball and not writing to you.
But the thing around here over is dead.
I have seen a couple of shows like "Stormy Weather" & "Salute the Marines". but that is all. So you know every time I go to a show I think of the wrong times we have at the show. And of the times to come. But then I go again looking to much in the future. I love to do that. But I am afraid I will build up the wrong thing or the things might chance and it may hurt some of us. I hope you under stand. So I guess the best thing is to get to your letter.

Told you I had P.P. and you said that you do not think you got that. When you write ever again Well, most of the boys got it. The boys that I come over sea with. They work a day and off a day. That is not so bad.

2.

I saw a nurse in the Red cross. Boy.
She had a very nice uniform on.
Of course it was a R.T. with the bars.
I could never see my self going out with you if you got me of those things.

The bars are just to big of going for me. I had my change and missed, but I guess you can start my own spelled milk.

I am just reading a very interesting part in your letter. Boy I sure like to read this like that. But to be truthful I don't know just what to say.

I was just thinking of the first time I called you up.
I was a Washington V. then. I called you for a date. I thought that you had a boy friend in such so I just thought that the answer was No. Which it was the first couple of times. You had a date a night duty or some thing. But then I finally got the date and we went to the show boat³.

which was not to last what I got to know you a lot that night.
I was just wondering if you really wanted to go out with us then? To be frank with you the old date did not mean to indeed at first. But as time went on and we had dates & dates a lot of things happen. OoOgure you have found out.

I hope I will be able to give me for a short letter but the place is just dead. And I am sure can write like I would like to because the people have to censor it. And I think to write a letter just between you & me.

I miss you very much.

With
Love
H.P.

P.S. I know it is hard up but the mind is not on writing a letter it is on you.
