AMERICAN RED CROSS

April 29/1944
England

Dearest Martha,

I guess I took my time to answer you. I received it about Wed. as usual.
I have very little to write about.
The week is very dull. But I did learn more about life.

I guess this will be the last time I will put again in my letter for a long time. I hope it's the last time I have to write home. I better watch out before I tell you all my troubles.

I guess I better get and answer you letter. I surely needed it to help me out. I feel pretty low and

2.

Sick of a lot of things. For here it is Saturday night and what do I do nothing. I love to write letters and especially to you. But I do not have a thing to say. I sometimes people say I am up a tree.

Oh! why can't you be here to help me out all I need is to see you or talk to you. But to have you back in my arms is a thing that seems to be so far away. It looks like it will never come true. That is enough of crying for one night.

I am very sorry to hear about you and all. I hope that it is better by now. How do you do it?

That interne must be something.
To bad he is married. If he was was it you could stop writing.
~~and~~ did you even think I might get jealous?

That is enough about the male sex. I hope they (male to you) female to me) do not treat you like they do me.
I have learn that this English girl can be as honest to you. Just as long as you have the under lock + key.

I want you to make me one promise.
you will study more like you letter says you are doing + you will write home instead of to me. They are a lot more important than I am.

and a short letter is just as good as a long letter.

I made a big mess out of this letter already so I guess I better leave
now. Before I do more harm.

To say that is miss you is not just the right word for me. I have not found out the right word.

With Lot of Love

Bob.
