Still in England

My Dearest,
I received your birthday card that you sent me. I am very glad to hear from you.

You see I did not get any mail & I was feeling pretty low. So that card made me feel better especially the words on the back. And the words in it were it says that we are so far apart. And they were are not kidding.

I had been about a year now since I had you in my arms. And that's sure a long time. I have not found any one to take my your place. I guess I will have to wait until I see you again. It is so easy to write that you miss me badly but there is a lot of meaning behind it.
And the way I mean it. The words should be put in big letters.

I am just sitting here thinking about the things I we did all last year. But we have wrote so much about it already.

I would like to write you about the football game, between Notre Dame & Army. I think that Army really gave the Irish a good beating. (And if that bet I made with you still goes. I got 15 days later coming from you. But I have not heard if the bet was ever met. I will have to wait until I hear from you. But I did not think that Army would do that much of them. I thought it would be a good fight.

I had a party for my birthday. I did not have a much of a drink but I did do a lot of dancing. How is your dancing? Did you get your birthday card I sent you? I am afraid you because I never heard that you got it.

I hope you are in good health happy as I am. But I still long to see you. But I am afraid it will be a long time with out my home

P.S. will enclose something for you.
