

Rev. O. T. Hoffstetter Jr.
37416183 Main T. Div.
120 Mobile R.R. St.
A.P.O. 636 5/6 PM.
N.Y. N.Y.

VIA AIR MAIL

Miss Martha Nightingale Darrrough
Lothman Hosp. Trk
School of Nur Sing.
Nurses' Home No. 2.
St. Louis,
Missouri.

Feb. 19, 1945
England

Dearest —

Well, as I got a little time before dinner I thought that I would drop you a line. as you know I am still thinking about you a lot.

We had very nice weather yesterday & today is still better. Boy if it stays like this much longer I will sure think spring is here. I guess the only way you can tell if spring is here is if the trees start getting green. as the grass is green all the time even with all the snow we had. and the birds are about the same.

As I wrote you yesterday I do not have much to write about so I will have to get to your letter of Jan 23 which is a very nice one.

And it really smells ~~very~~ good do you mind if I ask you what it is. I got an idea that it is the powder you use. as when ever I smell it I think about you. but the night is the pink. but you will have me dreaming if

I do not watch out.

You said something about writing off often enough. Will you write me then any other girl I know. I get about 3 letters a month from the others & you know your self that you do that in one week. But something it's not the number of letters what is in them. as one letter can make a week a good friend ship. But your letters are so nice & sweet & will if is just the kind I like to get. nothing
 I put you on that is like putting pins on your fudge sunday. You just need it to make it good.

Talking about my sister. Mother wrote me that she had some dances at school with the boys. and just a little while before that she told me that she could not get any boys because she had to wear glasses when she was reading. Now I tell think I would need a club & keep the wolves away as you call them.

You are your sisters & brothers. You did not say much at Emma in the Pacific?

I am still thinking about what you said about the foreign

3.

girls and how they take advantage of the money the boys are in. That's pretty true. Before the war all the girls would fall for the foreign men. Each time they see them in a picture they really grope them.
Now that the boys are over here and is other countries going out with the girl. The girls at home seem to change their ideas about the foreign men. But I still think that is the way ran the American girls & boys like to go with each other more. I mean it may be O.K. for a while but going with a girl over here. But I bet there's few of the boys that would give a second look to one over here if they could get a girl from home. The V.A.C.
& women had more money always home deals with the boys. A lot of the better looking ones have more deals over here than they had in their life. But we got some pretty bad looking jobs over here. That is enough of that. And now I have to go to or this out.

I will enclose a Dutch program & write you about it in the next letter. So until then
I hope you are thinking of me as I am of you.
All my love Hop.

COPY. 1944 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

Don't know whether the fighting is more dangerous in Germany or but it's a relief to know the women George meets now ies, and not those so grateful French girls!"

Chapel Chimes

Sunday, February 18, 1945

OUR CHAPEL ALTAR

THE PROTESTANT CHAPEL

2nd STRATEGIC AIR DEPOT

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND

COL. D. G. STITT, Commanding Officer

CHAPLAIN H. L. FENTON, Protestant Chaplain

Order of Service

(NOTE.—The organ prelude marks the beginning of the worship service. It is requested that all talking cease at the sound of the first note.)

ORGAN PRELUDE

Cpl. William Richter

SILENT PRAYER (remembering our men in battle)

DOXOLOGY

INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN NO. 132: "Sing Them Over Again To Me"
(vss. 1, 3—congregation seated)

FAVORITE HYMN (one verse—congregation seated)

SCRIPTURE READING: Philippians 1: 12-21

PRAYER

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HYMN NO. 113: "I Am Thine, O Lord"
(vss. 1, 2—congregation standing)

SOLO: "The Lost Chord" Lt. Joseph E. Williams

SERMON: "The Christian's God" Chaplain H. L. Fenton

PRAYER

HYMN NO. 98: "Jesus Calls Us"
(one verse—congregation standing)

BENEDICTION

ANNOUNCEMENTS

YOU'RE INVITED!: Our Church Visitation takes us this afternoon back to E—, where we had a good time just two weeks ago. Transportation leaves the Chapel at 1530 hours, and a cordial invitation is extended to you to come along and enjoy the hospitality of an English home and the fellowship of an English church.

AN EARLY HYPOCRITE: This is the theme of the Bible study this week, based on the fifth chapter of Acts. The class meets at 1900 hours on Tuesday in the Chapel.

PRAYER GROUP MEETS: The regular meeting of the Prayer Group will be held on Thursday evening at 1900 hours in Chaplain Fenton's office.

NEW LITERATURE ARRIVES: At long last our supply of reading material has been increased, and you'll find some interesting tracts and pamphlets on the Literature table this morning. Especially interesting is the booklet "The Lord Was There," which contains a number of stories of actual happenings in this war. You'll enjoy "God Is My Fortress," on page 5.

NEXT WEEK'S COVER PICTURE: The bulletin next Sunday will carry a picture of the Prayer Chapel.

A NEW PROJECT FOR OUR OFFERINGS: At a recent meeting of the Chapel Council, the matter of designating our offerings was discussed. It was the unanimous opinion of the group that, since we have already sponsored six British war orphans under the Stars and Stripes program, it might be well to help some American orphan for a change. Accordingly, it was decided to send $400, when that sum has accumulated from our weekly offerings, to some worthy institution in the States. This morning's offering will be our first contribution toward this new project.

ATTENDANCE LAST WEEK: There were 269 present last Sunday morning, and the offering, which was given to the Servicemen's Tract Fund, amounted to $64.00.

An interesting contrast is presented by the two poems below. When W. E. Henley wrote "Invictus," he gave expression to the outlook of a man who has a purely humanistic outlook on life. Dorothea Day wrote "The Captain" in response to Henley's poem, and therein gave expression to the viewpoint of the person who knows Christ.

INVICTUS

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find, me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishment the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul.

THE CAPTAIN

Out of the light that dazzles me,
Bright as the sun from pole to pole,
I thank the God I know to be
For Christ—the Conqueror of my soul.

Since His the sway of circumstance,
I would not wince, nor cry aloud.
Under that rule which men call chance
My head, with joy, is humbly bowed.

Beyond this place of sin and tears,
That life with Him—and His the aid
That, 'spite the menace of the years,
Keeps, and will keep, me unafraid.

I have no fear though strait the gate:
He cleared from punishment the scroll.
Christ is the Master of my fate!
Christ is the Captain of my soul.