Birthday

Dearest Maudie,

Well, how is that nurse in the draft getting you? I think looks like you may be a 2nd Lt. after all. And then I will not be able to go out with you poor me.

Well, I got a very nice letter of yours & answer. This is the last one then I would of answered all your letter. I have not received any mail for a long time. It just is not coming in. The last I got was that Christmas card I wrote
you about.

Well, we lost some of that warm weather we had. But we did not get any rain. That is one thing good. But we did gain one thing that is the moon. It looks like it gets clear only when the moon gets dark.
And that is no good because I do not want you here. Here

I am writing about the moon. And Bing Crosby is singing "Only a Paper Moon".
 I never heard that one before. Did you?

I was sure glad to read that you got 96% on your Exam but I never did that in my life. And you sure better stick to your studies & write me later. I will forgive you any time you have a room like that.

So Pool is a big city and has gone
 a little far and started out with the movie boats. Will you get surprised at some of the girls acting.
 But we had some movie men over here that run around more than the boys who are not married.
 There will be a stop here as they are playing my favorite song. Always it really has a nice good meaning. Do you know that one?

I do not know just what else to say about the girl & the doctor. As I do not know any of them. But it sure is not right. And I guess she will get all back on the straight & narrow
 now. Could you tell me any more.

I am ~~quite~~ glad to hear you say that you do not go in for gambling & smoking. As you will not get that from me because I hate to see a woman like that. I guess I am quite old-fashioned fastidious in my ways.

Talking about Church I sent you
a program, ^{in the} last letter. That was a view of the front of the Chapel. Now in this one I will enclose the picture of the top.
As you can see it was taken in the summer because of the light coats the top had on. I am in that picture some place can you tell me where. I will tell you at the end of this letter. It is not a bad change.

I wrote part of this at the lunch
hour so I have to go back to work
now. So I will have to close. I am working hard now.

I hope that you are in good health & happy. And that you still love me.
As I do you
- Always -

P. S. I am the first one in the fifth row
in the right seat.

CHURCH VISITATION : Today's trip is to E—— F——.
Transportation will leave the Chapel at 1530 hours.

BIBLE CLASS : Interest in the Tuesday evening Bible Class is growing. Come out this Tuesday at 1900 hours and see for yourself !
The topic this week, based on Acts 4, is "The Only Way."

THE POWER OF PRAYER : There's just one way to find out about the power of prayer, and that's to put it to the test. Our Prayer Group, which meets on Thursday nights at 1900 hours, is doing just that. You are invited.

THE CHAPLAIN RECOMMENDS : I think you'll enjoy reading the article by Colonel George S. Clarke, Infantry, USA, on page 7 of the new issue of "The Link," which is on the Literature Table today. Colonel Clarke left Bataan just five minutes before the capitulation to the Japanese, and he has a real story to tell.

YOUR OFFERING : Today's gifts will go to the Servicemen's Tract Fund of the Good News Publishing Company. There were 248 present last Sunday, and the offering amounted to $79.00.

NEW SERIES OF SERMONS : The Chaplain begins today a new series of sermons. Other topics in this series will include "The Christian's Goal," "The Christian's Task," "The Christian's Assurance," "The Christian's Conduct" and "The Christian's Post-War Plans."

THE BIBLE

When I am tired, the Bible is my bed ;
Or in the dark, the Bible is my light ;
When I am hungry, it is vital bread ;
Or fearful, it is armor for the fight.
When I am sick, 'tis healing medicine ;
Or lonely, thronging friends I find therein.

If I would work, the Bible is my tool ;
Or play, it is a harp of happy sound ;
If I am ignorant, it is my school ;
If I am sinking, it is solid ground.
If I am cold, the Bible is my fire ;
And it is wings, if boldly I aspire.

Does gloom oppress?—the Bible is a sun ;
Or ugliness?—it is a garden fair.
Am I athirst?—how cool its currents run !
Or stifled?—what a vivifying air !
Since thus thou givest of thyself to me,
How should I give myself, great Book, to thee?
