My Dearest Marty,

It has been a while since I wrote you but I have been very busy. I had Sunday off and last night I wrote a letter but it was a mess. As I could not keep my eyes open, I was that tired so I went to bed & got 11 hours of good well needed sleep.

I got a letter from you which I shall answer. But I said that I was not writing to you. I hope by now you got some mail from me. I have been writing about 3 letters a week & you. I guess they must of been lost & they are still coming.

In your letter you are telling me all about the pictures you saw like "To Have & to Have Not" - "A Song of Remembrance" - "The Bomber" - "The only ones I did see were 'Dive Bomber' that is as old as the hills as I saw it at the 'mission' when I was in high school and that has been a long time ago. The pictures really take a long time to get here. There is one I would like to see in town this week, I have a letter: if I see it I will write you. ^{to}

I wrote my mother about you going to Graduate. And asked her if she would let me go. I told her I would write you. Now if she gets that letter. I know she will write you. And I know she will like to come. But is it your mother or some of your family going to come? With me so far about it. You know I would like to be there so I can take you out that night. But it looks like that is another date we will have to put in north balls.

So you got a weakness for Hamburgers.
Well I am told you that you are not by yourself I bet any one of the boys over here has got the same weakness. My brother is sure one for that. What would it be for a chocolate waltz & a hamburger now.

Then I am taking about food when I just got up from the table. And we had some good fried steak. I had to go around for records. I almost got my car broke was going back but I made it.

You said come this about delivery room in this letter. Well I got some things I will about that. I got a V-nice from my mother yesterday. She said

But my cousin wife gave birth to a laddy boy. Well, it had to be a boy didn't it.
And as you are working up there you might of been around that day. I came on Valentine day at 9 AM. The husband, which is my cousin as I told you before, is also your brother. You must have at my house the day they had a party for Roy. And I think ^{that} ~~the~~ were also that the same party last year. His name is Ralph Reinhardt. You can sure tell we are a German family. This night not interest you but it is a little news.

~~you~~ (this pen)
The weather here is very nice but not as good as it is at home. If it is still like you letter as you say that the weather is very good.

I went to a dance Saturday night and had a pretty good time. At 11 o'clock I came over here and it was not very good when I got here. So I should need a good teacher.
And how are you as a teacher?
I got a paper here about a Wolf which I thought you may like.

Well,
if he parks in his little flower,
Down beside the moonlit river
And you tell him all a - queen

#

Baby - his a Wolf.

If he says you're gorgeous looking,
And your blue eyes set him cooking,
But your eyes ain't blue his looking

Baby - his a Wolf.

When he says let you're an eye-ful
But his hands begin to tingle
And his heart begins beats like a rifle

Baby - his a Wolf.

If by chance, when you're kissing
You can feel his heart missing,
But your talk & he won't listen.

Baby - his a Wolf.

Of his arms are strong as iron
And he tries to to spin you.
To you want him close against you.

Maybe you're the Wolf

I got for a British letter as you can take it for what it worth.

I got a cartoon I will send you. About my dancing & ju-jitsu. You will not showed you in the park in the night.
Oh how I wish the night would come back to us. As I would surely like to have you in my arms again.

I have to go to work now.

Love my love to the Dearest and my love I love you.

"You can't blame them for staring . . . it's probably been ages since they've seen one of these things!"

"Mike's sure in the groove since he took those ju-jitsu lessons!"
